

La Salle
COLLEGE PREPARATORY

Full Time Physics Teacher

La Salle College Preparatory High School in Pasadena, California, is accepting resumes for a full-time faculty member in the Science Department to teach Physics, Physics Honors, and AP Physics C: Mechanics.

We seek a candidate who will implement proven PER-based systems in the classroom with passion and creativity in an engaging manner. Experience with standards-based grading is preferred, but we can also provide background, details, and training on site.

Interested candidates should Email employment@lasallehs.org or call Tina Bonacci, Vice Principal, at 626.696.4311.

With Email, include a cover letter outlining experience, qualifications, and interest in the position, and a resume reflecting educational and professional background. With your submission, please also provide names and contact information for three references.

To learn more about La Salle, visit our website at <https://www.lasallehs.org/>.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS

- Undergraduate Physics or related degree;
- Ability to work collaboratively to promote student learning.

DESIRED QUALIFICATIONS

- Master's Degree in Education and/or teaching credential;
- Experience working with high school students;
- Experience as a classroom teacher;
- Experience with web-based learning, SmartBoards and 1:1 (e.g.iPads) classroom settings;
- Experience in a Catholic high school setting.
- Experience teaching in a hybrid model

MAJOR AREAS OF RESPONSIBILITY

- Model the characteristics of a Catholic, Lasallian educator;
- Actively support La Salle's Mission, Philosophy and ISOs;
- Design and/or implement courses and units that effectively promote department outcomes and adhere to the scope and sequence as determined by the department;
- Plan what students will learn, how they will learn, and how they will be assessed within a framework that features common assignments and assessments appropriate to the grade level within the academic discipline;

- Engage students in an active, effective learning environment;
- Collaborate with peers to develop, review and improve curriculum;
- Provide regular and varied assessments of student learning to compile appropriate grades and properly determine what and how all students are learning;
- Communicate consistently with students, parents and school personnel;
- Demonstrate a commitment to professional growth, including sharing best practices in pedagogy and educational technology;
- Work with appropriate administrators, the Learning Specialist, and/or counselors to support students that may have special learning needs;
- Keep current and complete grading and attendance records;
- Prefect and supervise students outside of the classroom;
- Actively support the co-curricular programs of the school.

La Salle College Preparatory will offer a competitive salary.

La Salle is an independent co-educational Catholic school serving students in grades 9-12 located in Pasadena, California. The school collaborates with the families it serves to provide a challenging, Catholic education for young men and women in the philosophy and traditions of the De La Salle Christian Brothers. This tradition, grounded in the values of St. John Baptist de La Salle, educates the whole person while emphasizing family spirit in a nurturing, caring environment, attentive to the moral, spiritual and religious development of students.

For more information, please visit our website at www.lasallehs.org.

Interested candidates should send a cover letter and resume to employment@lasallehs.org.